It sounds like you may not be practicing a whole lot of self-care, but you can change that! Self-care is taking the time to care for myself in whichever ways work best for you. We know that to be in a healthy relationship we each need time for ourselves and our own interests, and sometimes even when we're single our work and school schedules can get in the way of us truly taking the best care of ourselves. It's important to remember that self-care is not selfish, it's self-LOVE. Chat with an advocate on www.loveisrespect.org

It sounds like you may be practicing a little self-care, but could use some more guidance or ideas on how to best take care of myself. Remember: self-care is about taking the time to care for myself in whichever ways work best for you! Just start thinking about what you can do that makes you happy, and do it. Call, chat on www.loveisrespect.org or text LOVEIS to 22522 to speak with an advocate about more self-care ideas and what may be best for you.

It sounds like you are doing a good job taking care of myself! Self-care is important for your emotional, mental, and physical well-being, so keep it up! If you're used to doing the same techniques or methods, maybe try something totally new. If you usually journal your feelings, try your hand at art. If you always go for a run or do a physical activity, try some meditation and deep breathing exercises too. New experiences can be fun!

46-60 pts

It sounds like you know all about self-care, and are excellent at taking those few moments to focus on you! Keep it up! Self-care can be a really positive thing for anyone, especially for people who have experienced some form of trauma.
